

Harry S Truman National Historic Site

Field Trip Request

Curriculum-based education visits are currently the only advanced reservations that the park can accommodate. We are pleased to welcome the next generations of Truman scholars and National Park supporters to the Truman Home.

Please complete the following, and email to James McGill at the park. His email is james_mcgill@nps.gov. We would appreciate a two week advanced notice so that we can plan, as staffing can vary from day to day. Trips requested with less notice may not be able to be accommodated because of staffing.

As of April 1, 2019, there is no longer an entrance fee at Harry S Truman National Historic Site. But all other conditions and regulations apply.

Visiting Harry S Truman National Historic Site:

- Group tours are limited to 24, and are limited to 8 per tour.
- Each group must be accompanied by an adult or chaperone.
- Tickets must be picked up at the visitor center, 223 North Main Street, Independence, Missouri
- While on a tour of the Truman Home, the other students and adults may visit the Noland Home, another historic home across the street.
- There are restrooms at the visitor center and Noland Home.
- In the Truman Home, all visitors must refrain from touching anything, leaning against anything, and must stay on visitor carpets. No photography is permitted inside the Truman Home, and all foods, including candy and gum, are prohibited.
- If in need of some curriculum tools, please advise. Some tools are available on www.nps.gov/hstr.
- There are steps involved in entering the Secret Service gate and entering and exiting the Home. A mechanical chair lift is available with significant advanced notice, and only in dry conditions.
- Remember, “...the only thing new in this world is the history you don’t know.” Ask questions!
